

IN THE COURT OF CIVIL JUDGE SENIOR DIVISION;

BHUBANESWAR

C.S. No. 73 / 2024

In the matter of;

Upendra Kumar Prusty

.....Plaintiff

Vs

Saraswati Ghosh

.....Defendant

The Humble petition of the defendant in the suit:

ACCEPTANCE PETITION

1. That the defendant file this application for accepting written statement of the defendant. The defendants filed the written statement beyond prescribed period of time. The delay of filing written statement was not intentional but due to her mother-in-laws hospitalization. Acceptance of written statement for proper adjudication of the case and just decision of the suit.
2. That filing written statement beyond prescribed period was not intentional but to unavoidable circumstances on part of the defendant. The defendant has only dwelling house over the suit schedule property and unless the written statement is accepted the defendant will be highly prejudiced.
3. That delay of filing written statement due to some unavoidable circumstances, so delay may be condoned and the defendant may be permitted to participate in the proceedings.

P R A Y E R

It is therefore prayed by the defendant that this Hon'ble Court may graciously be pleased to allow this application accept the written statement-cum-counter claim for just decision of the case otherwise the defendant will be highly prejudiced.

And for this act of kindness the defendants shall duty bound ever pray.
